

haram (ḥarām)	حرام	forbidden according to Islamic law
hijab (ḥijāb)	حجاب	veil ordained by Allah for believing women
Hijrah	هجرة	migration, esp. the migration from Makkah to Madinah by Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) and his Companions, which marks the start of the Islamic calendar
'ibādāt (sg. 'ibādah)	عبادات	acts of worship
Iblees	إبليس	another name for Satan (Shayṭān) in Arabic
'iddah	عدة	the waiting period after a woman is widowed or divorced, during which she is not allowed to remarry, in order to ascertain whether or not she is pregnant with the child of her late or ex-husband
ifrād	إفراد	one of the three types of Hajj; in this case, the pilgrim performs Hajj alone (not combined with 'umrah )
ihrām	إحرام	the state of consecration for Hajj or 'umrah ; the special clothing worn by the pilgrim in such a state
in shā' Allāh	إن شاء الله	God willing
isrā' and mi'rāj	الإسراء والمعراج	the night journey of the Prophet (ﷺ) from Makkah to Jerusalem and his ascension from there to visit heaven